ON THE SCENE

Etro Holiday Culinary Experience

THE PARTY Luxury Italian fashion house Etro partnered with philanthropist Mitzi Solomon to host an intimate Holiday Culinary Experience at The St. Regis Atlanta. Limited to just 20 guests, the private gathering featured a refined three-course Italian lunch prepared by the hotel's chef, alongside a holiday gifting pop-up showcasing Etro's signature prints and craftsmanship. Guests dressed in the brand for the occasion, with 10% of sales proceeds benefiting Countdown for a Cure. The experience also included an exclusive tasting of Etro x Aimo e Nadia panettone, blending Italian culinary tradition with high fashion flair. THE PEOPLE The event was hosted by Mitzi Solomon, founder of Countdown for a Cure. Solomon is dedicated to advancing mitochondrial research to better understand and treat conditions including cardiomyopathy, neurodegenerative disorders, mitochondrial disease and autism spectrum disorder. THE PINNACLE Highlights included a holiday cocktail and caviar tasting, the chef's table luncheon and a celebratory panettone tasting followed by Champagne shopping at the Etro Holiday pop-up. -EK
